

McDowell Legacy Project

3rd Annual Film Premiere-Rescheduled!

The McDowell Senior Center will host a special showing of the McDowell Legacy Project on Thursday, March 12 at 6:30PM. This project is on-going and is collecting life stories from local citizens on film to be archived and used to create a local and world history as viewed by those who lived it.

Please Attend!!

The special film event on March 12 will show clips from the interviews collected in 2014 and also a look back to our past interviews. This event is to let our community know more about this important project, to honor those that have already contributed and encourage others to participate in the McDowell Legacy Project. Come out and support this important endeavor!
