

McDowell Memory Café

Tuesday January 23, 2018

from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at McDowell Senior Center

As the McDowell Memory Care Café Volunteer Group begins our second year of providing an appropriate environment for community socialization for friends or loved ones with dementia, please consider joining us if you have a family member or friend who might enjoy this experience.

To begin the New Year 2018, the McDowell Memory Café will move to Tuesdays beginning January 23 from 10:00 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. at the McDowell Senior Center. Arrival to the event is from 9:30 to 10 a.m. Brunch will begin at 10 a.m. Memory care trained volunteers will assist registered guests attending the café.

This first month of 2018 Memory Café program will include resolutions for the New Year and music reminiscences from the past.

Both the caregivers and their loved one or clients with dementia are invited to participate in the monthly McDowell Memory Café to enjoy fellowship and a free brunch. All participants with dementia must be accompanied by a family member, caregiver, or friend to the café.

Anyone who wants to participant must register to attend the café by calling Weyland Prebor, the McDowell Senior Center Director at 828-659-0821.
